

History

Liberia is a war torn nation in West Africa. The war stemmed from tribal conflicts that go back decades, mainly between the freed American slaves that settled in the area and the native tribal groups. The civil war broke out in 1989 and lasted until early 2004. Due to this war and the resulting disease there are thousands of orphans. CHAP has a vision and a passion to reach the small overlooked orphanages of Liberia.

What you can do to help.

For $30 per month you can cloth, feed, educate, house, medicate and evangelize one orphan. You will be assigned an orphan and within four months from us receiving your completed commitment card, along with your first month's payment. We will then send you a picture and name of the child you are sponsoring. CHAP will then send you an update and pictures semiannually.
